

CAREERS - CAREERS OPTIONS IN HE

Careers Support comes in lots of different shapes and sizes depending on you and where you're up to in your education. It's always good to know who can offer you that professional support no matter where you're currently at, and you're entitled to have access to a Careers Adviser at school or college - so don't get short changed!

University has tons of support available, including a Careers Service. One of the main focuses of university, between all the meal deals and late nights up debating what the best tea time quiz show is (it was Golden Balls, but The Chase will do), is going to be what you want to be able to achieve with your education.

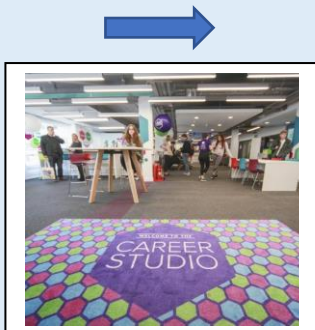

Rome wasn't built in a day, and your dreams won't manifest overnight, no matter how many times you read The Secret; you must put the work in!

Your Careers Service can provide support with planning for your goals, and all the little things that add up to get you there, such as CVs, applications, interview support and employability tips.
