

CAREERS - SUMMARY

We hope you've found the content of this week both useful and informative. There's so much to consider when it comes to making the right choice of career and we anticipate our guide will help you to start the process of making the right decision for you!

We also understand that taking those first steps can be a little daunting, however with support from your family, teachers, careers advisers and Shaping Futures this could be the start of an exciting, life changing experience for you!

It would be difficult to cover every aspect of career considerations, so if we've missed something that you particularly need, or you just want to ask a question, please contact us at any time on our 'Live Chat' or via email and we'll respond directly! Check out our 'Frequently Asked Questions' page for responses to some of the most popular enquiries!

Finally, just for fun, why not have a look at our 'Anagram Quiz' to test your knowledge of 'all things careers' and let us know what you think of our resources via the evaluation link!

Thanks for taking part, and good luck with your career planning!
